

3. दक्ष :- with all these qualities leader must be smart and always be in attention position, to plan that which work priority of work needs to do first, to distribute the work among staff, members as per their own skill , to keep our self save without facing problems, to deal with different types of people and convince teacher as well as management as per the need, to train the teachers etc... Above mentioned works in every school, we have to perform and for this "SMARTNESS "is needed and therefore a leader has to acquire it.
4. उदासीनो गतव्यथः :- when we work, we may come across failures but a real leader always think about future, never regret for The past mistakes. Always go ahead through past learning and never come in depression. And transfer the same message for team members it is one of the best quality of good leaders.
5. अदेष्टा सर्वभुताना :- The most unavoidable human trait is jealousy and to become a successful leader we may need to overcome from this mental disease because jealousy disturbs our mental peace and keep us away from our focus. It reduces our energy too. Instead of jealousy will someone we have to draw our line lengthy, automatically others line become small. And as a leader for these ' we need to read for more hours , we need to be techno says, we need to be more studies and when we adopt these habits, our line becomes lengthy itself which creates more energy in us and better concentration for our work . So to grow professionally we need to win these jealousy diseases. Which raises the sun of success for us and our school.
6. मैत्रः:- But , to avoid jealousy, the most effective weapon is to make everybody a friend or become everybody's friend, because if our friend goes up we become happy and satisfied. But to make friends we have to get involve in his professional and personal work with full heart and co-operation.
7. करुण :- friendship is a good weapon to become a successful leader but we all are working in school .we all are shaping the wonderful kids so last but not the least-the compassion. The compassion is MUST be needed quality. When we start to love everybody with compassion our commitment, less expectation, smartness and work for their betterment and friendship, automatically develop. So lets' come and try to acquire these super seven traits.
