

My all-time favourite place to be is the beach. The Calm beach as one can see in my latest painting.

Painting is the window of the soul, which expresses not just what the artist sees but also what the artist feels through the brush strokes.

My painting is a mystery that one can see with different perspective. It conveys the feeling of calm & serene while others can see it as peril & iffy.

*Smell the beach & feel the sky,
Let your soul and spirit fly!*
